

SCATLIFF + MILLER + MURRAY

visionary urban design + landscapes

Public and Community Engagement Professional

Career Opportunity - Winnipeg

Scatliff + Miller + Murray is seeking creative, organized, and strategic thinkers ready to be part of a dynamic, growing team of engagement professionals. Our work continues to blossom with interesting, diverse, challenging, and rewarding projects, and we are looking for enthusiastic professionals to complement our team and grow with our firm.

Are you interested in?

- Working with a multidisciplinary team that includes Landscape Architects, Urban Planners, Engineers, and Biologists;
- Engaging with stakeholders, rightsholders, and the public-at-large on:
 - Urban Design projects (plazas, parks, playgrounds)
 - Planning projects (masterplans, municipal development plans, recreation plans, community strategic plans)
 - Infrastructure projects (riverbanks, roads, bridges, landfills);
- Collaborating with—and working for—Indigenous communities; and
- Occasional travel within Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Northwestern Ontario.

Do you have the following skills?

- Ability to translate technical project information into easy to understand graphics and language;
- Capability to collaborate on strategizing, developing, and writing engagement and communication plans;
- Skill set to research and identify those impacted by projects and assessing their level of impact;
- Ability to facilitate meetings, sessions, and presentations;
- Excellent graphic, verbal, and written communication skills; and
- Data analysis and report writing.

Successful applicants will likely come from a background in Urban Planning, Landscape Architecture, or Natural Resource Management with experience engaging stakeholders and/or the public on a variety of projects.

Foundations training in IAP2 is an asset. Experience is required, but we do not have a minimum expectation for years of experience. We are an equal opportunity employer that values diversity.

This posting will be open until August 10, 2022. We understand that your submission is to be received with the utmost of discretion. While all submissions will be truly appreciated, only those selected will be notified. Please submit (via email only) a resume and references in confidence to:

Cheryl Dixon MALA, CSLA
Principal
cdixon@scatliff.ca

Scatliff + Miller + Murray is a firm of professionals focused on developing bold new concepts and high-level designs for urban revitalization and sustainable development. We have a reputation for visionary and innovative design. The firm's embrace of sustainability, regional character and collaboration is evident in our many transformative projects. Our projects are planned and executed in harmony with the landscape, culture and community.